Purpose: To offer a framework for ensuring that HuGE reviews have a similar, easy-to-follow, format.

Focus: Conduct of secondary research

Governance: HuGE Net Executive Group (Molly Bray, Marta Gwinn, Julian Higgins, John Ioannidis, Muin Khoury, Julian Little, Teri Manolio, Ron Zimmern).

Finance: Unknown

Methods:	In November 2004, a workshop in Cambridge, UK, brought together epidemiologists, geneticists, statisticians and other healthcare researchers to develop methodological guidance for authors of systematic reviews and meta-analyses in human genome epidemiology, and to identify any potential developments that could improve their validity. The resultant Handbook was edited by Julian Little and Julian Higgins, on behalf of the writing group. No further information published.
