Purpose: To guide standardized reporting of nonrandomized research studies.

Focus: Report of primary research.

Governance: The CDC is one of the major operating components of the US Department of Health and Human Services. No further information published.

Finance: National Government

Methods:	In 2003, the CDC's HIV/AIDS Prevention Research Synthesis (PRS) team convened a Journal Editors Meeting to discuss the usefulness of adequate reporting standards. Participants reached consensus on standards, developed a checklist to guide authors and journal reviewers, and developed strategies to disseminate the standards. No further information published.
